

Discover Dinwiddie's History...

Dinwiddie County is steeped in American history. Commonly known as the locality with the most Civil War battles and raids in the nation, Dinwiddie County is home to many destinations telling the story of the important Breakthrough Battle. This battle, that took place in April of 1865, led to the Confederate surrender at Appomattox Courthouse just a week later. Pamplin Historical Park features antebellum homes, a National Historic Landmark Civil War battlefield, educational programs and special events. The Historic Dinwiddie Courthouse was built in 1851 and was the headquarters of Union General Philip H. Sheridan during the Battle of Dinwiddie Courthouse. Petersburg National Battlefield's Five Forks Unit and Poplar Grove National Cemetery are also located in the County, telling the story of the Siege of Petersburg, which was the longest military event of the War.
